Hardin Construction's Ed Hanratty Elected to The Rollins College Hamilton Holt School Board of Advisors

ORLANDO, FL (September 21, 2011) — Ed Hanratty, Vice President General Manager in the Orlando office of Hardin Construction, was elected to serve on the Rollins College Hamilton Holt School Board of Advisors.

The Hamilton Holt School is the evening studies division of Rollins College. The college was founded in 1960 and is designed for adults seeking personal or professional growth through a bachelor's or master's degree program in the evening. The Hamilton Holt Board of Advisors is responsible for raising scholarship funds and reviewing prospective scholarship recipients for this worthwhile program.

"I am so proud to be among this committed group of people, and I'm looking forward to the contributions I can make to students' success in higher education. I am honored to take on this new position, and I am truly focused on serving the needs of the Board of Advisors and the Rollins community," said Hanratty of his new role with the Hamilton Holt School.
