Mathews Division of Hardin Construction Commences Jesuit High School Baseball Park Renovation

TAMPA, FL (July 26, 2010) — A $2.6 million renovation of the Jesuit High School baseball complex is in full swing, the Mathews Division of Hardin Construction Company announced.

The project includes reorientation of the existing playing field plus improved facilities and amenities, including: 1,200 square feet of locker rooms, 900 square feet of dugout space, a 300-square-foot press box, a 300-square-foot concession area, 500 square feet of restrooms, 500-seat bleachers, 3,000 square feet of batting cages, and ancillary structures to accommodate the renovated facility.

The project's architect of record is Alfonso Architects of Tampa.

The project is scheduled to complete in Spring of 2011.
