“Topping Out” Observance Signals Milestone for Hardin Construction Company’s St. Luke’s Hospital Project

HOUSTON, TX (December 20, 2010) — Hardin Construction Company recently celebrated the “topping out” of the $3.4 million St. Luke’s Hospital at the Vintage Medical Office Building in Houston, Texas—a traditional signal that construction has reached its maximum height.

The Medical Office Building, owned by HC Vintage MOB I, LLC (Hammes Company and St. Luke’s Partnership) of Brookfield, Wisconsin, is a three-story, 39,749-square-foot, tilt wall project with masonry and curtain wall façade. The project, which includes a 176-space parking lot, will complete in April 2011.

The architect of record is Earl Swensson Associates, LLC of Nashville, Tennessee.
