Hardin's University Commons Voted Best Overall Dorm

ATLANTA, GA (March 7, 2011) — The University Commons student housing facility at Georgia State University was recently ranked the “Best Overall Dorm in the Country,” by CampusSplash.com, a website that provides high school and college students news about college life and admissions.

With its first “Dormy Awards” based on more than 7,100 reviews, CampusSplash announced University Commons was first for “Schools with the Best Overall Dorms” and fourth on the list of the “Best 14 Dorms in the Country.” University Commons received an average of 4.5 stars, with five stars in categories, including location and convenience, quiet study environments and cleanliness.

Hardin Construction Company, LLC completed construction of the 2,000-bed complex in July 2007. The 4.2-acre Commons consists of four apartment buildings ranging from 8 to 15 stories.

University Commons has also received awards from Southeast Construction Magazine (Best of 2007 Award for College Housing), Associated Builders and Contractors (Pyramid Award in the Mega Projects Category), Atlanta Business Chronicle (Best in Atlanta Real Estate Awards – Residential), American Concrete Institute (First Place in the High Rise Category) and University Business (Dorm of Distinction 2008).
